

OC CARES

PROJECT Y: YOUTH SOCIAL ENTREPRENEURSHIP WORKSHOP

ABOUT OC CARES

OC Cares is a non-profit organization dedicated to educating and inspiring the next generation of Social Entrepreneurs as Compassionate Agents of Change. OCCares fulfills this vision through Project Y, a Youth Social Entrepreneurship Program developed in partnership with UCI & Pepperdine University.

MODERATED BY:

Dr. Katherine Ahn Wallace, founder of OC Cares, Aviara Centers, Oxygen Tape, and Origin KISS

GUEST SPEAKERS

“Pitch Perfect”: Learn the art of pitching your vision from Conrad Nidzielski, a young entrepreneur and two-time pitch competition champion

“My Why”: Be inspired by Jason Strickner, a graduate student in Pepperdine’s Social Entrepreneurship & Change program, as he shares his journey.

ABOUT PROJECT Y

- Learn about social entrepreneurship and philanthropy: transforming passion into impact
- Receive up to 20 service hours with additional volunteer participation
- Earn a certificate of completion from Pepperdine University and OC Cares
- Develop leadership and business skills

PROGRAM INFORMATION

DATE + TIME

- Sunday, April 21st
- 1 PM to 5 PM

LOCATION

- Aviara Center
- 11121 Los Alamitos Blvd Ste 203, Los Alamitos, CA 90720

EMAIL YOUR COMPLETED
APPLICATIONS TO DRAHN@OCCARES.ORG

VISIT OCCARES.ORG
FOR MORE INFORMATION